ABBEVILLE, S. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1868.

THOMAS EAKIN.

SUCCESSOR TO EAKIN & KNOX,

Wholesale and Retail

GROCER AND PROVISION DEALER, ABBEVILLE C. H., S. C.,

BEGS leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he is now receiving a full and complete assortment of GROCERIES, PROVI SIONS AND LIQUORS, which being bought entirely for Cash, he is able to sell at a reduced price for the same. It is his intention to keep a FIEST CLASS GROCERY AND PROVISION STORE, having exceed arrangements in Baltimore by which he will receive weekly additions to his present boys what has come over you to ask stock. Afterng the arrivals for the last week can be found:

esice SHOULDERS, John House SYRUP, STARCH, SODA,

Kits No. 1 MACKEREL, Cases SARDINES. Cakes E. D. CHEESE, Soda CRACKERS,

TS: CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES,

CHOICE HEMLOCK AND OAK TANNED these wide awake little fellows are. SOLE LEATHER, the with a great many other things too numerous to mention. His intention being to SELL his goods, parties wishing anything in his

ON HAND.

Decominantly receiving, the choicest brands of Liquors ever Lrought to this market, consist-

Cautior Freres

OTARD&CO., PINET&CO.,

and London Dok Brandies. IRISH. SCOTCH, BOURDON, OLD RYL PURE RYE, CORM. WHITE, AND DOMASTIC WHISKIES.

Madeira, Port, Champagno, Shorry, Claret,

Swoot and other Puro Wines, Helland Gin,

Rum, Ale, &c., &c. Physicians and families in need of a pure article for medicinal use will find it to their interest to give us a call.

2000 lbs. Bacon, 2000 lbs. choice Flour,

250 lbs. assorted Candy, 500 lbs. Sole Leather, 656 lbs. cheese, 10 lbbs. Molosses, 4 lbbs. Syrup, 2 lbbs. Pickied Pork, 2 lbbs. Mackerel, 4 lbbs. Mackerel, 10 Kits Mack

JNO. KNOX & CO.

HAVE NOW IN STORE

A FULL ASSORTMENT

OPET

MADE BY

T. MILES & SON, Philadelphia.

LADIES who have worn them know what they are. Be fitted before the assortment

TO BARTER

For Corn or Corn Meal.

1000 lbs. Choice BACON, on the fol-

100 lbs. Bacon, sides for 15 bushels of corn.
1 0 lbs. " "141 " of meal.
100 lbs. " shoulders for 18 bush. of corn.
100 lbs. " ahoulders for 12 meal.

THOS. EAKIN.

April 10, 1863, 51, tf

April 17, 1869, 52, 1f

lowing Terms:

April 17, 1868, 52, ff

JOHN KNOX & CO.

Patented May 7, 1867, by F. Elder, Chester, S. C.

For Sale by Quarles & Thomson.

This Washer is simple in its construction, durable and not out to-night; however I put my department of Christian activity.— cannot touch rice without the most is demonstrable by the most positive proof Consul-General for assistance. As it liable to get out of order. It will wash six shirts, or that bulk of light in the window and went to bed The inference he would manifestly extreme discomfort. "On one occaclothes, in five minutes, if properly used according to directions. about ten o'clock. I cannot say how have drawn from his narrative is, that sion, when at a dinner party, he felt not produce a crop good either in quantities, who have done We are Agents for the above machines in Abbeville, S. C., where long I had slept when I was aroused apart from him and his methods of the symptoms of rice poisoning come tity or quality. It would be supposed we will be pleased to fill orders promptly; and in all cases, if the by a heavy knocking at the door. I service, the Baptists would not now on, and was, as usual, obliged to retire that the practical experience of old fruit Porte's dominious than all other influence. machine does not give satisfaction, we will take it back and refund got up and opened it as soon as pos- occupy the advanced position which from the table, although he had not growers should have taught them this, once put together, dare not now QUARLES & THOMSON. sible. There stood a man who seem- they have attained. the money.

December 11

PUBLICATIONS OF THE

American Sunday-school Union on hand

AT

GREENWOOD, S. C.

Address, W. T. FARROW.

March 4

State Missionary.

WANTED,

1000 BUSHELS CORN,

1000 BUSHELS PEAS, FOR WHICH

The Highest CASH Price will be paid BY

QUARLES & THOMSON. Feb 14, 1868, 43, tf

Morton's Mills.

THE subscriber would announce to his friends, patrons, and the public generally, that his well known Mills, on Long Cane, ly, that his well known Mills, on Long Cane, are now in excellent condition, and he can give the assurance that all orders entrusted to him will receive prompt and satisfactory attention. I With the best of machinery, and an experienced miller, he can guarantee entire satisfaction, both in the quantity and quality of the yield. The public patronage is respectfully colicited. A. II. MORTON.

April 3, 1868, 50, tf *

THOSE to whom I have extended credit for the past year, would do me a great favor to pay their accounts. I have a great many small accounts which I would like settled. I must have money in order to meet the de mands against me.

JOHN A. TALMADGE.

LESTATE Of John P. Cromer, dec'd

A LL creditors of John P. Cromer deceased.

Court, to present and prove their demands be ore me on or before the 15th day of May next or be barred.

WM. H. PARKER,

C. E. A. D.

Commissioner's Office.

"Uncle Joseph, Uncle Joseph, tell

THE GOLDEN RULE.

This was asked by some half dozen right-eyed, enger looking little fel- then you do the right thing. ows who clustered around a white haired old man, with a very pleasant his remarks there de p and strong ; Golden Rule. but it was a very true and clear letter of praise that those who ran might read.

"Uncle Joseph answered, "Why

One little boy answered, "Well unfather about you, and I asked him well, and he told us to come to you; he thought you would tell us the secret- Now please do."

Then the old man said : -

"Well, boys, this is the secret; I would wish others to do to me. This is a good rule and very casy to understand, and those who practice it cannot be far out of the way. I was al-

"But look here boys, you come and quite a young man, which I think has made a life long impression upon the traveler to the house.

erel, 2 Tierce's Lard, Maccarch, Folks Maccarch, Sola Crack-ers, Butter Crackers, 3 sacks of Rio Coffee, 2 Mats of Java Coffee, &c., 4c., just received and for sale low for CASH only.

can get to it.' he offered me a well filled purse. I the account? thanked him and said I wish for nothing but the regular fee. As I spoke to me,' and he was gone.

cret I have told you. Try to do as ed or maligned, he must ultimately you would be done by. It is a very stand just where he belongs. We easy rule to follow. If you are in- leave him to the operation of that law, us what makes every one like you so clined to do wrong, just stop and and would neither hasten nor retard think, would I like to have another do so to me! That will decide it and

"Boys I am an old man now but I never found anything that would ace. Indeed, Father Time had left yield better than the practice of the

AUTO-BIOGRAPHY OF ELDER KNAPP.

One object for which this volume was written and published manifestly was, to furnish evidence that the sys cle I'll tell you: We were talking with tem of evangelism which the author claims to have inaugurated and sucwhat made every body like you so cessfully introduced among the churches, has achieved results that entitle it to be regarded as an eminently beneficient agency; in other words, that he has rendered a service whose fruits have been of such a nature and have always tried to do by others as I extent as to prove that his mission was divine. He probably does not mistake in assuming to have been essontially the originator of that system; for while Nettleton, Finney, and ways a quiet, thoughtful boy, and per- Burchard preceded him in the emhaps for that reason was more inclin- playment of extraordinary means for ed to think of others than some of the promotion of revivals, their methods differed so much from his as to exempt him from the charge of being sit with me under the shade of this their imitator. Neither they nor body. Casseli's Magazine gives some beautiful clm tree, and I will tell you their friends, we believe, ever cons- singular illustrations of physical suswhat happened to me when I was plained that he had appropriated their ceptibility to animate and inanimate thunder, or availed himself of their bodies. prestige to facilitate his own popularity and effectiveness. He believed "Well, to begin, as the story-tellers himself to have a mission in a particsay, when I was a young mar I lived ular direction, and he entered upon it seized with a fit; and such persons, far away from here, in a hilly country honestly, and through much obleany again, are equally disturbed by the and very near where I lived there and opposition, prosecuted it with an proximity of rabbits. It is related in was what is called a mountain gorge, ardor and a persistency which cannot the Medical Journal that their presence which was some ten feet wide. Now be accounted for on the supposition has had the same effect upon the muto get on the opposite side one must that he was actuated by saifish im- cous membrane-in other words, the travel some four or five miles; so the pulses. Bound to judge every man's lining membrane of the mouth, throat neighbors concluded to have a bridge motives as favorably as the patent digestive apparatus, and nose-as a built, and each one that crossed pay facts will allow, we see not how any bad cold would have had, creating on toil, and in that way to pay for the fair-minded man can question the the instant an attack simulating the bridge and keep it in repair. As I sincerity of Eider Knapp, or suspect effects of a bad influenza. Some per lived nearer to the bridge than any that he abandoned the pastorate and sons cannot cat a lob-ter salad withone else they voted that I should be struck off upon a new line of action out its having a very curious effect toll gatherer. This was not a very under any influence less creditable upon their complexion. We know a arduous task, as there was not a great | than a felt conviction of duty. He | lady who once indulged at suppor deal of travel in that region, and very regarded himself, and others soon re- time in a salad of this kind, and upon seldom any one wished to cross the garded him, as called to that form of her return to the hall-room, her face bridge after ten o'clock at night. O, service. His plan of operations, in and neck immediately became cover-I must not forget to tell you that complete at first, was the growth of ed with spots, obliging her to retire. there was a gate at one end of the years, and of a succession of experi- A medical friend tells us that eating Culturis; and succeed: bridge which was kept locked at night ments, and gradually assumed that veal gives a lady of his acquaintance and no one could cross without they form which is sufficiently unique and the nettle-rash, and that crange-peel came and roused me up; but I always characteristic to justify the designa- has produced great nervous excitekept a light in the window to guide tion of "Knappism"—a name by ment. Figs, again, give rise in some require little or no manure. Manuring is still persecuting the American Pres-"One day we had a heavy pouring of the American Baptists of the mid sensation of the tickling movement, become positively hurtful, but this is rare- their schools. A Presbyter of the rain all day, and as night came on in- dle third of the nineteenth century. like ants upon the palate. The most ly done, the mistake generally being in name of Fan Stephanos, who has stead of stopping, in seemed to in- He now demands credit not only for extraordinary example of the adverse the other direction. We have on a numcrease in violence. The wind blew himself but also for his evangelism as influence of a common article of food ber of occasions had opportunities of twenty years, was only saved from hard, and I thought to myself—This having largely contributed to the upon the stomach, is related by the witnessing the wretched results of this deportation to the Blue Nile by the is indeed a fearful night; but it is nt bringing up of his denomination to a probable there will be any travelers higher standard of efficiency in every tals. He says that patient of his Whatever may be said to the contrary, it sienaries, who have appealed to our rain. I asked im to come in, but he in the period of his service is undeni- gation, that some white soup, with our mind's eye, a plantation of strawbersaid, 'Young man I am sorry to trou- able; but there are not a few who which he had commenced his dinner, ries, set out last spring upon new and ble you, but I am very anzions to would be slow to admit that the im- had been thickened with ground rice." very poor soil. The plants were not parcross the bridge to-night, and would provement so observable and so grat. But what is this to the perverse stem- ticularly vigorous at the time they were like to have you open the gate for ifying, are traceable to him and his ach of a gentleman in a case cited by set, in fact some of them had been kept me. I tried to persuade him to come work. All bearing upon this point Dr. Prous, who was poisoned by cat- cut of the ground so long, that faint in and stop till morning; but he which we find proved, is that certain ing a mutton-chop? The most diges- hopes were entertained of their growing could not think of it, as he had a changes on the general field were con- tible of all flesh to the ordinary mor- at all. child on the other side who was very temporaneous with his efforts in par- tal, was to him positively as poisonous The cowner having faith in fertilizers, sick and he felt that he must go. ticular districts. We do not find that as though he had caten toadstools. immediately procured a supply of pigeon So I took a lantern and the key, and he makes apparent beyond question, It was at first imagined by his phy- manure, which was mixed with Superbeen, we found it was blown away. of facts. How they stand related in Then the stranger gazed in astonish- the great complex mechanism of morment, and exclaimed, 'What shall I al cause and effect is a matter of legido? I fear my child will die before I timate inquiry open to all who may be disposed to the investigation. It place a few rods above here where I claims which he has now informally bave often waded across in pleasant preferred, and which his editor, the weather. If you will get upon my Rov. Dr. Jeffrey, has plainly endorback and trust yourself with me, I sed, are valid, then the denomination can get you safely across." He said is largely his debter, and all the Willingly willingly young man, if remuneration he has thus far recieved you are disposed to undertake it. So is a meagre return for such an amount I took him upon my back; but as of service. He acknowledges the rethe water was quite deep, I had to ceipt in thirty six years, of $21,130 use a great deal of caution and care; and it is well known that he has been but at last I got him safely upon the the subject of more abuse than comopposite bank. When I set him down mendation. How, in justice, stands

For many reasons we are indisposed to call in question the general correct-I looked towards him and a halo of ness of his narrative as to matters of light seemed to surround his head, as fact, or to deny the legitimacy of the hold! there stood the bridge, appa- aims and motives. He is not an ex- tressing, but dangerous. rently as strong as ever. Then I ceptional case in the arrangement of knew my labor of love had been 'all human responsibility. He is not, by a droam; but boys, it left an indel- any special dispensation, exempt from the great London banker and philanlible impression on my mind, and af- the law which is sure to dispose of all thropist, who recently visited Rome, ter that I was more inclined than unwarranted assumptions, and bring and had an interview with the Pope, starvation principle, make a note of this,

He is still living and acting, and his record is not completed. We would not, if we could, anticipate the verdiet which will in due time be more just to his memory than any which can now be rendered. The events in which his agency has been concerned. and the controversies of which he has been the occasion, are too recent to justify an expectation that he will by but consumable substance. Fowls this generation be judged with desirable fairness. Goed men are still divi. to form the shells of their eggs, and ded in opinion, and many in feeling, grit or gravel to grind the food in are the most subtile, and if they cannot with respect to him and the tendency of his methods of service. The time, as we believe, has not come for a wise adgment, and we think it would have had no attempt been made to forestall the estimate of a later generation, quality of the food. They, like our-Thousands regard him with affection- selves, like shade in summer, and ate confidence, and are committed to warm sheltered corners in winter. his defence as one of the most useful Fowls will not long be healthy on the

ECCENTRICITIES OF THE FLESH

The flash is as eccentric as the spirt, and our mental antipathies are often paralieled by the dislikes of the

The presence of a cat in the room has been known to affect certain persons as though they were about to be which it will be known in the history to what is termed "formication," or a may be carried to such an extent, as to byterian missionaries, and has closed some time on the Revision of the Bible violent vomiting and diarrheea.

It is said that Mr. George Peabody, ever to do good as I had portunity. every man up or down to his own has become a convert to the Catholic and no longer wonder that they have fail- ly make her the wealthiest woman in York is twenty feet beneath the "I hope you will profit by the se- appropriate level. However eulogize Church, the second sec

Service Committee

POULTRY ON THE FARM.

Mr. Mechi, an eminent agricultu ist, writes as follows on poultry mat-

"Nothing pays better on a farm han a good stock of poultry properly managed. With them everything s turned to account; not a kernel, wild seed, or insect, escapes their claws are ever at work, uncovering darkness. ready for appropriation, every hidden must have free access to chork or lime their gizzards. They luxuriate on grass or clover, which are a necessity for them; in winter they like mangold or swedes. They must have acsame ground or yards-the earth gets tainted: therefore, to prevent disease, lime and salt your yards, and their usual pasture once a year, say. in autumn, when the rains will wash it well in, and sweten the surface Broods of chickens never do better with us than on the grassy brows or patches abutting upon the growing crops, either of corn or pulse, into which they run either for insects, or tor shelter. Your male birds should often be changed, say at least once in two years and they should be young and vigorous. Breeding in and in will not do no more than it will with animals. I consider winged game, poultry and birds, the farmer's friends. My poultry have access at all times to my fields. Fowls are very useful in clearing off flies. I have often been amused at seeing the next and quick manner of taking flies from reposing bullocks and sheep, much to their

STRAWBFRRIES.

Many, who try to grow strawberries following hints from the American Fruit university.

One of the many errors to which amateur, and even regular fruit- growers are learn that the Pasha of Egypt, under liable, is the impression, that fruit plants | the influence of the Coptie Patriarch, partaken of any dish ostensibly con- and yet some of them do not appear to ed to be completely drenched with That great progress has been made taining rice. It appeared, on investible have improved the lesson. We have in

went out to let him go across; but the relations of antecedent and con- sician that his dislike to this kind of Phosphate, and muck fresh from the when we got to where the bridge had sequent. There are the two classes food arese from mere fancy; and in swamps, After allowing it to lie undisorder to test him, mutton, disguised, turbed for a few days, or until it began to was served to him as other flesh meat, heat; the heap was then spitted down and but always with the same result- thoroughly turned over. In the course of the next two or three days this opera-Many persons cannot remain in a tion was repeated, and once again shortly "Then I said, Friend, there is a is, however, quite evident that if the room where there is choose; and we after. The compest was then ready for are told of an eccentric constitution application to the newly set plants. A that could not sit at a table where was dressing was given to every hill, the com a cooked hare. Eggs, again, rebel in post being well mixed with the soil sur the most violent manner against some rounding the plants. In less than a week stomachs. The sense of touch, too, is the plants assumed and healthful appear very eccentric in some individuals, ance Those which at cetting out were and the handling of a russett apple is regarded as about hopeless, began to grow intolerable to a gentleman we have thriftily. The foilage became abundant heard of; and the more passing of the and of a deep rich green. Three weeks hand along the bristle of a brush, after a similar dressing, together with proproduces the most exquisite nervous per cultivation, was given them, and at The Charlotte papers are filled with distress in a lady of our acquaintance. the close of the season, it may be safely The emanations arising from vege-table sources have a very marked of ries, covering in extent nearly two acres, fect upon some people. Indeed, there | was not to be found in New Jersey. In is a disease known as the hay asthma, broad contrast to this, was a plantation on ford Howell, D. D., of Nashville, died which, at the hay harvest, periodical- contignous farm, soil and plants nearly in that city, at the age of 67 years be repeated these words—'Inasmuch inferences which he seems desirous to ly, affects many persons who reside the same. On this latter plantation little as ye have done it unto one of the leas have deduced from his statements and anywhere near hay fields when they or no manure was applied, the owner trus- service for a time, and had resigned of these my brethren, ye have done it unthe first person to suspect his veraci. known. Floating particles of the season were, an almost total failure. We church in Nashville. Dr. Howell had "How I got back into bed again I ty; we are willing he should have all seed are always set free at such times, mention these facts, in order to prompt have recollection. In the morning the benefit he can derive from his and striking against the mucous mem- small truit growers into a more liberal for many years. when I got up my light was burning logic. As to rights, he stands on the branes of the nose, mouth, and throat spirit of manuring their crops. It will as usual. The rain had ceased, and I same platform as all others, and we of the individuals liable to this affect pay as certainly as that day follows night, looked out to view the ruins caused see not that he has forfeited any claim tion, produce spasmodic action of the and it may set down as an incontrovertiby the late storm, when lo! and be- to al charitable construction of his throat, which is not only very dis- ble axiom, that the most unprofitable of all small fruit cultivation is, that which ignores the liberal use of proper manures.

TELL YOUR WIFE.

If you are in trouble or a quandary, tell your wife-that is, if you have one-all about it at once. Ten to one her invention will solve your difficulty sooner then all your logic. The wit of woman has been praised, but her instincts are quicker with your wife, or your mother or sister

Women are too commonly adjudged as verdant in all but purely womanish affairs. No philosophical student of the sex thus udges them. Their intuitions, or insights, see a cat in the meal, there is no cat there. In counseling a man to tell his trouble to town were totally consumed, and the his wife, we would go farther, and advise him to keep none of his affairs secret from stopped by the desperate exertions of been better for the interests of truth cess to plenty of pure water. The ker. Many a home has been happily savquality of the eggs depends upon the ed, and many a fortune retrieved by man's full confidence in his "better half." Woman is far more a seer and prophet than man, if she be a fair choice. As a gener- cants. His Theological School is also al rule, wives confile the minutest of their | sending out a company of thoroughly plans and thoughts to their husbands, having no involvements to screen from them. Why not reciprocate, if but for the pleas- anonymously $10,000 for his operations. ure of meeting confidence with confidence? We are certain that no man succeeds so hir purposes and hopes. What is wrong that a belt of land four hundred miles and set right with her almost universally | without an inhabitant; and a district that significant title, as applied to man's com- s now a descried waste. panion. She is a meet help to him in every darkness, difficulty, and sorrow of life. And what she most craves, and most des never free from shadows.

NEWS SUMMARY.

The University at Pekin .- The colege or university (as it is intended to last year, as reported by the tax colbe), in the capital of China, was for- lector, was $38,248. That includes mally opened for instruction the first his profits on "Norwood" and other of last December. The new institu- literary labor outside of his ministerition commences with a staff of four al duties. European professors, and one American, the Rev. Doctor Martin. Thirty students, who have been previously instructed in foreign languages, and as many new pupils, who are selected and other small fruits, utterly fail, and from the nigher grades of Chinese therefore become discouraged. Read the scholarship, are now attending the > Persecutions in Egypt .- We regret to more for the regeneration of the print their tracts, nor teach freely in their schools, nor preach as before.

Mississippi .- Planters have gone to work in earnest. Large crops of cereals and cotton will be planted all over the South. Fears are apprehended of an overflow, which retards planting in the river countries. The cotton crop will fall short half a million bales of the first estimate. An epidemic prevails in Lississippi among mules. The disease is like colic, but more fatal. Several planters in the middle part of the State have lost their entire stock by this disease.

Valune of Land .- At a sale of land at Spartanburg Court House, on Monlast, the following tracts, the property of Joel T. Foster, were sold by the sheriff: One hundred and ten acres for eight hundred and seventy dollars: one hundred and fifty-two acres for one thousand dollars, being respectivey eight and six dollars per acre.

An immense conservative meeting, with the addition of a torch-light procession, fire-works and speeches, was held in Charlotte, N.C., on Friday last. the particulars on the occasion. K. K. K.'s were out in full force.

Recently Rev. Robort Boyte Craw-He had been laid aside from active been a prominent Baptist minister

The Gaines Case of au End .- This case which has long been pending, of Mrs. Gen eral Gaines against the city of New Orleans Let those who have been trying to Washington in her favor. Persons who quickest trip on record. raise strawberries or other fruits on the are acquainted with the value of the property, say that this decision will undoubted-

Resignation of Civil Officers .- An order from General Canby, dated April 10, 1868, provides "that all resgnations of civil officers, tendered either to the military or civil author ities of North Carolina or South Car olina, shall not take effect, or relieve the officer tendering the same from his and keener than her reason. Council responsibility for a due discharge of the duties of his office, until the ac scrutinizing eyes. Their industrious and be assured light will flash upon your ceptance thereof is officially notified and a successor to such office has been daly adjointed and qualified."

> A very destructive conflagration oc curred at Lancaster Court House, on the morning of the 9th inst. Three buildings in the principal square of the ravages of the fire was only stopped the citizens. .

Rev. Mr. Spurgeon's Church at the Tabernacle numbers now 0,634 cummunievangelicat and promising young men into the ministry. He recently received

Effect of the Rebellion in China .- A well in the world as he who, taking a part traveler in China, speaking of the awful ner for hie, makes her the partner of all carnage in the Tre-ping rebellion, states of his impulse or judgment, she will check long and two hundred wide is literally right instincts. "Helpmeet" was no in- once yielded 90,000 chests of tea per annum.

Rev. J. G. Butler, D. D., late pastor of the Presbyterian Church (New School) in serves, is confidence-without which love West Philadelphia, in this city, has been elected Secretary of the American and Foreign Christian Union, and has accepted the appointment.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's income

The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer save Mr. Stephens, of Russell co. Ala. raised, on ordinary pine land, an average of twenty-six hundred possils of seed cotton, from Brazilian seed of a rich cream vellow color, very fine fiber and long staple. Experienced cotton-dealers pronounce it worth twice as much as the ordinary upland

Rev. Dr. Conant, a member of the Baptist Church who has been engaged for ble Union, is announced as having his new translation of the Book of Genesis ready for publication in may.

Rev. Cyrus Ryngton, one of the oldest missionaries of the Choctaw Indian tribe, sengaged in having the well known work of Rev. Newman Hall, entitled "Come to Jesus," printed in the Choctaw language and for circulation among that people by the American Tract Society.

Com. Prentice, U. S. N., died on the South Carolina Railroad on the Sth instant.

Rev. John W. Beckwith was ordained

Bishop of the P. E. Church in Georgia, April 2, in Savannah, Ga. Fruit crop and early vegetables in Au gusta, Ga, were killed by a severe hai storm on the 13th inst.

The Indians are in a starving condition in the vicinity of Fort Berthold. They are eating their horses and dogs.

The Virginia Convention, by 48 to 11, adopted an article exempting $2,-000 worth of real and personal proporty from forced sale for past and futuro debts.

The recent fluctuations in Erie stock have made and unmade some fortunes for individuals. One gentleman made $80,000 n one day, and another lost $300,000 in a

The Steamer Sea Bird was burned on Lake Michigan, opposite Waukegan, Ill., Thursday morning, and out of fifty-two or fifty-three passengers, only two are known to have been saved.

A gentleman of Montreal offers to the American Board $800 per year, in gold, for ten years and longer, if life and means are spared, to support a missionary in China, in addition to those who would otherwise be seut.

Another earthquake shock, causing considerable fear among the people, but doing no damage, is reported to have occurred in Northern New York on last Tuesday night.

The steamship Ville de Paris, reand many citizens thereof, for certain prohas been decided by the Supreme Court at days and sixteen hours, being the

> The mysterious cave under 2 64 face and of unexplored extent.